

What Brown Vetoed, but Newsom Signed (or Vetoed as well)
By Chris Micheli

Now that the 2019 Legislative Session has concluded, many Capitol observers have inquired whether bills that had been vetoed by Governor Jerry Brown over the past few years saw success under Governor Gavin Newsom. Or whether bills that Brown had vetoed were also vetoed by our new governor.

With the help of all the Assembly and Senate policy committee consultants, as well as the Assembly and Senate Republican Caucus consultants, our collective research found 69 bills (48 ABs and 21 SBs) that Governor Newsom signed after Governor Brown had vetoed earlier versions, while 23 bills (16 ABs and 7 SBs) were vetoed by both governors. That is 92 bills in total.

The following chart sets forth the bills that we have found, with the double-vetoes in italics (if there are any bills missing, please let me know so that the chart can be updated):
