

CAN YOU BE ANTI-TRUMP BUT STILL VOTE FOR ME?

Take the simple test:

- ☐ I can't stand Trump, but I'm not happy with the way things have been run in California lately.
- ☐ I just want California to be amazing, but we make it so hard to live here.
- ☐ I keep hearing about affordable housing, but it never seems to happen.
- ☐ I want government to be properly funded, but do taxes really have to be this high?
- ☐ I'm all for solar power, but I can barely afford my electric bill.
- ☐ I feel compassion for the homeless, but we need to get people off the streets and into care.
- ☐ I support progressive goals, but running a business here is nearly impossible.
- ☐ I want to fight climate change, but $6.00 gas is crazy!
- ☐ I believe in public education, but something's not right when basic standards and discipline are so low.
- ☐ I'm a Democrat, but I want to send a message that we need a change.

If you answered YES to some or all of these, good news!
You have a choice: Steve Hilton for Governor.

Yes, I'm the Republican. The "Fox News guy". Endorsed by Trump. But this election is not about who you hate in Washington. It's about what you love here.

California should be affordable. Our schools should work. Our streets should be safe. Families should be able to buy a home. Running a business should not feel impossible. And a good life here should not be reserved for people who are already rich.

I'm not an ideologue. I'm a pragmatic problem-solver with business and government experience. I don't want to tell you how to live your life, I want to help you live the life you want.

You don't have to like Trump. You don't have to become a Republican. You just have to ask yourself: does it make sense to vote the same way and expect a different result?

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH.
Let's Fix California.
